

FACULTY of ELECTRONICS and TELECOMMUNICATIONS POZNAN UNIVERSITY OF TECHNOLOGY

opens recruitment for 4-year (2017-2021)

full-time PhD PROGRAMME

COMMUNICATION TECHNOLOGIES

for Polish and EU/EFTA candidates

Programme topics:

- wired and wireless telecommunication systems and networks,
- advanced measurement systems,
- modern signal processing techniques,
- multimedia telecommunications systems,
- integrated services and broadband networks,
- optical networks,
- teletraffic engineering and network modeling,
- advanced signal identification and estimation techniques,
- services in telecommunication networks,
- navigation systems,
- wireless personal communications systems,
- cellular networks,
- satellite communications systems,
- advanced image processing and compression techniques.

The language of instruction is English.

Recruitment process for Polish and EU/EFTA candidates

The PhD students are eligible to apply for a doctoral scholarship.

Required documents:

- Application for admission
- Personal questionnaire
- CV with a description of scientific achievements
- Certified copy of Master diploma (or diplomas) or equivalent, and if not available – certification of passing the diploma exam
- Certification of average grade of 2-cycle studies
- 3 paper photographs (4,5 x 6,5 cm), and a Digital photo on CD (details of digital photo format at <http://www.put.poznan.pl/rekrutacja/dokumenty/zdjecia-cyfrowe>)
- Statement of a proposed research supervisor from the Faculty academic staff – if possible

Attention: recruitment fee is NOT charged.

Application deadline: 22.09.2016

Interview date: 25.09.2016 (Monday), at 10.00, room 211, Faculty of Electronics and Telecommunications, 3 Polanka street, Poznań

Study starting date: October 2017

Limit of places: 20

Correspondence address: Wydział Elektroniki i Telekomunikacji (Faculty of Electronics and Telecommunications) ul. Piotrowo 3a, 60-965 Poznań, with insertion: Studia Doktoranckie (PhD Programme), Phone: 061 665 2293, -2290.